Hello,

I'm so excited to see all new and returning students tomorrow! Tuesday is a day we mainly use for the kids to introduce themselves and learn more about the show. Thursday will be our audition day.

I'll be sending an invite for you to access the James and the Giant Peach soundtrack on Google drive, and I will also give you a YouTube link to the playlist. Please let me know if you have trouble accessing either of these links.

Also a reminder that Thursday is our parent meeting for anyone who is able to attend. It will be from 5:30-6:00, and we will be talking about parent volunteer positions and other important information.

Here is the YouTube Link to the James and the Giant Peach playlist - (not all songs are included in this playlist, so you will probably still need to access the Google drive)
