Hello everyone,

Tomorrow is the big day! We're so excited for our production, and these kids have been working so hard. I am very proud of them!

If your child can arrive early, I will be there at 3:15. Please make sure that they show up on time tomorrow as we have a lot to do before the show at 7:00!

Reminder - the kids will be staying with us during dinner. After our run thru ends at 6:00, they will break for pizza and the show will start at 7:00.

Let me know if you have any questions. See you tomorrow!
