

April 5, 2021

Dear Drama Parents,

Thank you for being part of ALF's online Theatre Workshop series. We hope that your student enjoyed the first week of class. A reminder that if you have any trouble with Zoom access, be sure to notify Director, Tristan Waldron right away via email at waldront_drama@alflintridge.org. Also, due to the short length of the program, please avoid scheduling any appointments during class time. If your student must be absent, email Tristan at your earliest convenience. Tuesday classes are recorded and the link will be available for viewing, if a student needs to miss one.

Each student has been given an assigned time for the Thursday group sessions and need only attend during that time on Thursdays. The group assignments were emailed to you under separate cover and is also listed on the ALFie Players page of the website.

Also, a reminder that your student was assigned homework over spring break that is due April 13. The students are to draw designs to be used on our T-shirts and performance program. They should make at least 2 drawings from their respective stories and include the title of the performance which is going to be "Island Tales." The 3:45 -4:30 PM group is doing "The Boastful Toad" from Bali and the 4:30 - 5:15 PM group is doing "Tiger in the Forest, Anansi in the Web" from the West Indies. Please draw with black marker on white paper (or digitally), then scan the drawings and email them to Tristan Waldron by class time Tuesday.

In addition, please plan to attend the virtual Drama Parent Meeting Tuesday, April 13 at 5:00 PM which will start immediately after class using the same zoom link. You will have the chance to hear from the directors and volunteer for some small jobs that make our program even more fun!

Again, thank you for participating in ALF Drama. We appreciate your support!
