Hello everyone,

I just wanted to give you a heads up to let you know not to purchase Lion King costumes just yet! I will be sending out emails by the end of the week to give you more guidance on what we are planning for costumes depending on what we have available and connections I am reaching out to, to see if there is anything we can rent.

On that note, if you have connections to any costume companies or theatres that may have Lion King themed costumes for rent, feel free to let me know!

Thanks,
-Katelyn
