

January 11, 2022

Dear ALF Band Families,

While we are in this Omicron surge, ALF has decided to move our band classes outside. The good news is the weather looks like it will cooperate. We are taking things one day at a time and trying to adjust to changing conditions. We appreciate your understanding.

Warm regards,
Nancy