

Bailey Human Care Center

Bailey Human Care Center is a free community outreach program of the Tujunga United Methodist Church that has been providing services to the local community since 1981. It is an entirely volunteer run organization that serves over 300 needy families and individuals a week. The Food Cupboard provides emergency food services for homeless and low-income families/individuals, and the Clothes Closet offers free donated clothing for adults and children. Bailey Center also offers a medical equipment loan program and blankets for those in need. All services are free of charge.

Toiletries needed* Shampoo, Body Wash, Deodorant, Hand Sanitizer, Toothpaste, Toothbrush

*A budget of $50 per member will be reimbursed by Assisteens. Please let the donation committee know what and how many items you plan to purchase. Remember a Reimbursement Form must be completed for approval PRIOR to purchase.
